Providing short term
supported accommodation, and domestic and family violence related supports

Who we are

We provide a regional, person-centred service that responds with dignity and respect to the needs of people who are experiencing homelessness, at risk of homelessness or who are experiencing gendered violence.

What we do

- Provide secure accommodation for women and children escaping domestic and family violence
- Provide short term accommodation options in the community for families
- Provide assessment, information and referrals

What kind of support is offered?

- Case management support throughout your tenancy with us to assist you to plan and achieve your goals
- Support to access specialist services including health, legal, counselling, parenting, relationship, educational and employment
- Budgeting support and referral to specialised financial counselling services
- Access to information and support to be heard
- Confidential conversations to assess supports needed and to refer to appropriate services
- Assistance to build capacity to overcome barriers to access longer term housing

What can I expect?

- To be treated respectfully
- To know that any information you provide will be treated confidentially
- Housing provided on a short-term basis with timeframes which reflect the needs of each individual situation
